Gospel Summary

A storm arose on the sea and the disciples saw Jesus walking on the water toward them. At first, they thought it was a ghost, but then they recognized Jesus. In an effort to show his great faith, Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. Peter was focused and walked toward Jesus. All went well until he looked at the storm. The same is true for us. If we stay focused on Jesus, we will be strong. It's when we get distracted by adversity that we begin to sink.

Reflection for Families

Parents certainly know there are many stormy times in trying to raise children. As we fall into bed exhausted at night, we may realize that we focused on the storms instead of Jesus' loving presence. Take a few minutes today to think about where Jesus tried to break in.

Discerning God's Call:

This weekend is the Annual Seminarian Collection. This collection was previously held in November, but as of this year, has been moved to August and is your opportunity to support the educational expenses of our seminarians. Currently, we are blessed to have eight men discerning a call to the priesthood. The cost to educate each seminarian is a little over $50,000 per seminarian. The total cost to educate all our seminarians is almost $500,000. Every gift to the Seminarian Education fund helps to cover the tuition, books and board and summer ministry expenses for our seminarians. Your generosity is a vital component to the success of these men as they prepare to minister to the needs of future generations of Catholics within our diocese. Thank you for your consideration and kindness.

A Family Perspective ...by Bud Ozar

The demands of family can be so overwhelming we feel walking on water would be easier. When Jesus was pressured, He dismissed everyone, so he could be “by himself and pray.” When overwhelmed and stressed, go to a quiet place and surrender your pressured feelings to the Lord using Peter’s prayer in today’s gospel: “Lord, save me.”
